A dispatch from Washington has the following to say on the workings of the new law:

Washington, Dec. 19.—According to the regulations governing the parcels post system promulgated by Postmaster General Hitchcock, perishable articles may be sent through the mails only under specific restrictions as to their containers and the distance they have to be sent.

Butter, lard, fish, fresh meat, dressed fowl, vegetables, fruits, berries and similar articles likely quickly to decay may be sent for short distances when securely packed. Eggs will be accepted for local delivery when packed properly in a container and for any distance when each egg is in a perfectly secure manner.

No restriction is placed on the mailing of salted, dried or smoked meat, but fresh meat will be transported only within the first zone.

Fragile articles, including millinery, toys, musical instruments and articles of glass in whole or in part must be carefully packed and marked "fragile."

Articles that may not be sent by parcels post include intoxicating liquors of all kinds, poison, poisonous animals, insects or reptiles, explosive of any kind, inflammable articles, including matches, infernal machines, pistols or revolvers, disease germs, any obscene, defamatory or scurrilous matter not prohibited by law, live or dead animals or birds or live poultry, raw hides or pelts or anything having a bad odor.

The new system will be effective throughout the entire postal service at the same time, and will affect every post office, city, rural and railway mail transportation route in the country.

The regulations provide that parcels of merchandise, including farm and factory products (but not books and printed matter), of almost every description up to eleven pounds in weight and measuring as much as six feet in length and girth combined, except those calculated to do injury to the mails in transit, may be mailed at any postoffice for delivery to any address in the country. Delivery will be made to the homes of people living on rural and star routes, as well as those living in cities and towns where there is delivery by carrier. Where there is at present no delivery by carrier the parcels will go to the postoffice as in the case with ordinary mail.

The postage rate for the first zone—that is, fifth distance not exceeding fifty miles, will be five cents for the first pound and three cents for each additional pound. Rates increase for each successive one of the eight zones into which the country is divided, the maximum being twelve cents a pound, which will carry a parcel across the continent, or even to Alaska and the Philippines.

For a fee of ten cents, a parcel may be insured, and if the parcel is lost in the mails an indemnity to the amount of its value, not to exceed $50 will be paid to the sender.

The law provides for the use of distinctive postage stamps and there is now being distributed to postmasters for use in the parcels post system a set of stamps of twelve denominations. Parcels post maps, with accompanying guides, are to be sold to the public at their cost, twenty-five cents, through the chief clerk of the postoffice department.

W. E. AMON

Former Lincoln Farmer Dies in Garrard—Buried Here

W. E. Amon, for many years a farmer and highly respected citizen of Lincoln county, died at his home near Camp Dick Robinson, Garrard county, Thursday afternoon.

About three months ago the deceased sustained a stroke of paralysis, from which he never seemed able to rally and he steadily declined in health. Mr. Amon was a native of Illinois, having been there 70 years ago. Some 30 years since he came to Lincoln county and purchased the farm now owned by Wm. West on the Gilbert's Creek road and by his strict attention to business and courteous treatment of all he amassed a neat estate and made many friends. Four years ago he disposed of his land in this county and bought property at Camp Robinson, where his son, Dr. J. A. Amon resides, and conducted his farming enterprises there with success until his health gave way.

Deceased is survived by his wife and two children, Dr. J. A. Amon, of Camp Dick Robinson, and Mrs. Moberly of Kansas City, Mo. He was a long and consistent member of the Baptist church and an exemplary citizen.

The remains were brought here Saturday afternoon and after a short service at the grave in Buffalo cemetery by his pastor, were laid to rest.

BOTH FOR BECKHAM

Candidates in Garrard Declare Themselves in Bio Race.

Lancaster, Ky., Dec. 30.—One of the most interesting races to be run in the primary next August will be that for representative from Garrard, which place was well filled by John M. Farra at the last session. Mr. Farra has announced as a candidate for re-election, and J. M. Mount will be his opponent. The latter is the original Woodrow Wilson man in this part of the state as well as an original Beckham man. Mr. Farra, however, has also declared himself unopposed for Beckham for senator, so that both candidates will work for his nomination.

In fact, it's going to be mighty hard for any candidate for county office to win in Garrard next year who is not for Beckham for senator for the good democratic voters of this section are demanding that the party right the wrong which was done him when the nominee five years ago when the liquor interests "prevailed" upon four democrats to desert him in his honor of need. Beckham is certain to carry Garrard by an overwhelming majority over any and all candidates who may oppose him.

SAFE BLOWERS AT WORK

Make Unsuccessful Efforts at Farris' Grocery and Postoffice

Safe blowers made two unsuccessful attempts to get money on last Tuesday night, Christmas Eve. The party or parties entered the post office building from the rear about 11 o'clock and were evidently making preparations to blow the safe, Marshall Stone, of this office, happened to be in the rear of the I. J. building and saw a man come out of the alley back of the postoffice and sneak across the bridge by his relative, Clem Bowers, gave chase and the man finally eluded them, dodging in behind the buildings and disappearing in the dark.

Postmaster Florence says that the would be burglar secured nothing but he was in the neighborhood of the money and would in all probability have tried dynamite on the safe had not Stone frightened him away.

The same night an unsuccessful effort was made to blow the safe of George H. Farris, the well known grocer on corner of Main and Somerset streets. The entrance was effected by breaking a lock on the basement door. The thieves seemed to want nothing but money as goods of considerable value were within easy reach but untouched.

The would be dynamiters bored a hole in the safe just above the lock but did not put in shot, evidently being frightened off the job by some passer by. As they touched nothing but the safe Mr. Farris' loss amounts to very little the damage to his safe being slight.

This is the third attempt to rob Mr. Farris in 18 months and the impression prevails that local talent is responsible for the work, as everything points to novices in the business. About two years ago the postoffice was blown open and several hundred dollars in stamps and cash was secured. This however, was believed to be the work of an expert as the job was skillfully done.

In Memory of C. G. Caldwell.

Mr. Commodore G. Caldwell was born near Waynesburg, Lincoln county, June 17, 1847 died Dec. 24, 1912 age 65 years, 5 months, 24 days. On Dec. 27, 1870 he was married to Martha A. Onstott, whom God took away from him only four days before he departed his life. He united with the Baptist church about 40 years ago, and always lived an honest upright Christian life. Serving as deacon of the church about 30 years, always attended church meetings and Sunday school and was teacher in the Sunday school and about 30 years. He is survived by six children, three boys and three girls, viz: Wyckliff, Tully B. and Egbert Caldwell, and Mrs. Ida McMullin, Mrs. Effie Sims and Miss Esther Caldwell. He told his children on his dying bed that he was not afraid to die, that he had made ready years ago to meet that dark hour and that their mother was just waiting for him on the other side. His life was such that anyone should try to live. He will be missed by his friends and neighbors, for they knew him as a Christian gentleman, devoted to the church of his choice, kind, generous, charitable, benevolent. He never forgot a friend nor cherished malice. A honorable home was his in which centered all those endearing affections, which made it to him the dearest spot on earth, and there he will be missed and mourned until time shall reunite father, mother and children.

And you, oh, you, who the wildest yearn,

For the old time steps and the glad return,

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of these as the love of here,

Think of him still as the same, I say,
He is not dead—he is just away.

MRS. MARY HILL

Widow of Noted Lawyer Passes
Away at Her Home Friday.

Mrs. Mary Peyton Hill, widow of the noted lawyer and orator, Col. T. P. Hill, died at her apartments at the Coffee Hotel Friday night at 8 o'clock after a two weeks' illness of brain trouble.

Mrs. Hill was born at Peyton's Well, Lincoln county 75 years ago and her entire life had been spent in this community. When a very young woman she united with the Hustonville Christian church and had always been a consistent member.

Her mother died when she was a mere child, and being the eldest of her father's household, the cares which fell upon the wife and mother devolved upon her. And well and faithfully did she perform those duties ministering to her father's home until his death.

In 1901 the deceased became the wife of Col. Hill, who died a few years ago, after which his wife took up her residence at the Coffee House, where she had since resided.

Mrs. Hill is survived by two brothers, Master-on Peyton, a leading lawyer of Muskogee, Okla., and Speed Peyton, a former of this county, and two sisters, Mrs. Greenberry Adams, of McKinney, Texas, and Mrs. J. C. Jenkins, of Concord, Tenn., who had the consolation of arriving in time to see her sister before the spirit took its flight.

After services at the Coffee House Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by her pastor, Rev. D. M. Walker, the remains of Mrs. Hill were consigned to the tomb in Buffalo Springs cemetery.

Preachersville

On Christmas night, Ralph Ballard, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ballard, was shot in the leg by Henry Kidd, who was intoxicated and seemingly trying to demonstrate that he could paint things red. Young Ballard, it is said, was taking turn about with Kidd in firing a pistol and had furnished the cartridges himself. After firing his half of the shells he handed the pistol to Kidd, who fired two shots, the second taking effect as stated above. The lad was hurried to his home one mile east, just over the line in Garrard, a physician was called to attend his injuries. Examination showed that the ball, 38 in caliber, had passed through the fleshy part of his thigh bone on the edge and then passing upward and out, had lodged in his trousers lining. Sunday evening it was reported that the lad was worse, and complications are feared.

Considering the number of youths who were shooting their fireworks, and those who were looking on, it is no small wonder that more were not hurt by the random shooting of the revolver in the hands of Kidd and the Ballard boy.

Miss Della May Lawrence was a guest of Misses Carrie and Grace Anderson.

Little Miss Victoria Anderson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anderson, gave a candy pulling to her little friends.

Miss Carrie Naylor went to Shelby City to visit her friends Misses Lena and Julia Brown.

Misses Katie Melvin and Ruby Parrish gave an elegant social last Thursday evening. A charming time is reported by the beaux present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cress and family have returned from a very delightful visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McClary at Duomo.

Mr. and Mrs. James Curtis, of Garrard, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lunsford.

Miss Kate Payne visited Miss Roxie Jennings at Rowland.

Rev. Robert Jordan and wife visited their son, Walter Jordan and wife. While here, Rev. Jordan preached at the Baptist church to a good crowd. He is now stationed at Woodlawn.

Bert and Howard Holtzclaw, of Gilbert's Creek, are visiting relatives at Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Jesse Traylor and little daughter, Sara Larue, of Paris, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White.

McGuffey is in jail on the charge of shooting and killing his brother in law, Holly Shouse, near their home on the Stanford and Danville pike last Sunday week. A large number of witnesses came in for the trial Friday, but immediately returned home.

Dan Hester Very Ill

Daniel Hester, of King's Mountain, who has been in very poor health for several months, was taken to a specialist in Lexington last week for treatment. One of his feet has given him a great deal of trouble and pain and local physicians have been unable to diagnose the case. The Lexington specialist, it is understood believes that a dead bone in the member is the cause of the trouble, but refused to perform an operation on account of Mr. Hester's general debility, he also being a sufferer from diabetes, and grave fears entertained for his recovery.

East Lynn Coming.

East Lynn, which comes to the opera house here Thursday night, Jan. 2d, was at Louisville last week and the Herald said of it:

The cycle of the dramatic year would be incomplete without "East Lynn." Men may come and men may go, but this dramatized heart throbs is endowed with eternal life. Long after Merlin has ceased to pronounce judgment on the passing shows, "East Lynn" will continue its worthy mission of moving tender hearted women to tears and strong men to sobs of sympathy.

The people who like "East Lynn" turn out to welcome it. They were not the usual audience that one sees at the Shubert Masonic for this dramatic classic has its own constituency, a following that dearly loves romance, that, even in a democratic country, delights to see earls and baronets and titled ladies, and to absorb the atmosphere of "high society."
